ELECTION

Sir:

In response to the Restriction Requirement of October 21, 2002, Applicant elects to prosecute the species of Claims 10-17, in the above-identified application.

As the Examiner notes, Claims 1-8 are generic. Accordingly, it is believed that these claims should be examined with the claims of the elected species. Also, upon allowance of these claims, it is believed that the non-elected claims will also be allowed.

Applicant notes that no reason was given in the restriction requirement for the restriction. It is respectfully requested that such reasons be provided.

Applicant is making this election without prejudice to later filing a divisional application on the non-elected claims and species.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: November 21, 2002
